[Junior Consultant Transaction Diligence]

What if your career could have a lasting impact on you, and on the world?

Here at EY, you'll have the chance to build a truly exceptional experience. We'll empower you with the latest technology, surround you with high-performing teams, and provide the global scale and diverse and inclusive culture you need to discover your full potential. Through our coaching and training programs, you'll develop the skillsets you need to stay relevant today and in the future – all while building a network of colleagues, mentors, and leaders who will be on the journey with you at EY and beyond.

The exceptional EY experience. It's yours to build.

The opportunity: your next adventure awaits

The EY Strategy and Transactions (SaT) team combines all the experience and expertise available within EY in order to offer a complete range of value-added services and to advise on corporate transactions. For cross-border transactions, we deploy multinational teams from the international EY SaT network. The Belgian SaT team is comprised of over 70 professionals coming from various backgrounds and disciplines, such as corporate finance, private equity, trading, industry and financial audit.

Due to our growth, we are looking for Junior Consultants within Transaction Diligence for our Diegem office.

Within SaT, the Transaction Diligence team aims to assist clients, both private equity firms and corporate clients, throughout the whole transaction process. Whilst traditional financial due diligence is a key element of the service, transaction support is much broader, incorporating assistance with business plan assessment, including support to the transaction management, negotiation and documentation, and post-completion integration.

Your key responsibilities

- Performing financial due diligence procedures relating to the sale and purchase of companies and businesses together with your project team. You will do this in order to identify risks that are relevant to the perception of a contemplated transaction.
- Analyzing key balance sheet components and valuation issues, for example, identifying overvalued assets and undervalued/omitted liabilities.
- Quantifying tax and other non-compliance exposures.
- Coordinating with other advisors/investors (e.g. legal, lenders).
- Supporting the buyer's negotiating position and purchase price adjustments.
- Providing input to purchase and debt agreements and other related documents.

- Analyzing working capital requirements and seasonality relative to proposed target levels.

What we look for

- A master's degree in finance, economics, accounting, business or similar.
- Excellent knowledge of spoken and written Dutch and English.
- Excellent analytical, project management, communication, interpersonal and teaming skills.
- Outstanding organizational skills, flexibility and ability to work under tight deadlines.
- PC proficiency including MS Excel, Word, and PowerPoint.
- IFRS experience is a plus.
- Willingness to learn, proactivity, openness to work in a multicultural environment.
- You are available to start in October 2022.

What's in it for you

- Accelerate your technical capabilities and transformative leadership skills with future-focused courses and development programs.
- Broaden your horizons by working on highly integrated teams across the globe and collaborate with people of diverse backgrounds — both professionally and culturally.
- Bring out the best in yourself with continuous investment in your personal well-being and career development.
- Develop your own personal purpose and help us create a positive ripple effect on our teams, our business, clients and society – building a better working world, together.
- A competitive remuneration package including fringe benefits and a company car will be offered.
