

Rivean Capital - Internship in Brussels

Who we are

With €3.0bn of Assets under Management, Rivean Capital (formerly known as Gilde Buy Out Partners) is among the largest dedicated mid-market buyout investment firms in Europe today. Our funds are subscribed by over 60 institutional investors, which include some of the world's leading financial institutions and pension funds. Founded in 1982, Rivean has a local-for-local approach through our offices in Brussels, Utrecht, Zurich, Frankfurt and Milan, while operating on global scale through our platform investments and international add-on M&A activity. Rivean focuses on firms based in the Benelux, DACH region and Italy, with an enterprise value of €100-500m. We bring a track record of driving transformational value growth across our portfolio of 18+ current, and past investments.

What you can expect

As an intern, you will be an integral member of our Brussels-based team, meaning that you will have very large exposure to the entire investment process and the opportunity to collaborate on:

- Due diligence of new investment opportunities
- Modeling, valuation and structuring of investments
- Portfolio company monitoring, value creation and bolt-on M&A
- Lead identification and related market and industry research

Who we are looking for

- Curious, passionate about business and finance, eager to make a difference and create impact
- Outstanding academic track record; university education in Business Engineering, Civil Engineering, or any other economic / management studies
- Excellent analytical skills, combining a strategic mindset with attention to detail
- Strong foundation in MS Office (especially Excel and PowerPoint)
- A self-starter with a hands-on mentality
- Able to work independently and under time pressure
- Solid team player with good communication skills
- Fluent in Dutch and English, French is a plus
- Prior experience in Investment Banking, Private Equity, Consulting is welcome

What do we offer

- A 4 to 6 months internship experience in our Brussels office, with year-round flexible starting date
- Opportunity to work in a challenging and nice environment with dynamic and down-to-earth colleagues
- A market conform remuneration
- Option to convert to a full-time position in case of a strong mutual match

Process

Applications are reviewed on a continuous basis. After a first screening, candidates will be assessed on their motivation and aspirations, foundational skills and mutual fit with the team in two rounds.

Interested?

If you are interested in joining us, please send your CV and cover letter to r.corthout@riveancapital.com.

Looking forward meeting you!