

Long-term internship opportunity

Unique opportunity to join a fast growing European middle market flexible investment fund

Kartesia is looking for a top-performing recent graduate to join a team as intern analyst for a set period of up to one year in the Brussels office. He/she will experience the Analyst role by being part of the dynamic Benelux deal team. He/she will help assess a large variety of direct investment opportunities in mid-sized companies across industries and across the capital structure. The role will entail being involved in early deal screening and deal execution at a high pace by analysing early deal opportunities, performing market and strategic analyses on potential targets, financial modelling, drafting investment committee papers and assist the deal team with portfolio management and other strategic initiatives

Kartesia is a fast-growing, privately-owned, European provider of tailored credit and capital solutions to middle-market companies. We have a total of €3.6b assets under management and target opportunities in which we can invest between €15m and €140m, with the support of our limited partners. Kartesia is a long-term and relationship-driven investor aiming to offer our investors stable and superior risk-adjusted returns by building a diversified portfolio with solid downside protection.

Upon completion of the internship, many of our interns are ready to take up job vacancies as an Analyst in e.g. Private Debt, Private Equity or investment banking. Kartesia also encourages successful interns to apply for internal job vacancies should there be any openings at any given time.

Lise Campforts, who recently joined Kartesia as an analyst, commented: "During my first four months within Kartesia, I had the opportunity to close two deals in which I was involved from the deal screening and first management meeting to funding & closing. Today I am responsible for the follow-up in terms of reporting and am involved in further supporting both businesses in their growth. I believe that being part of the deal team within Kartesia is a unique opportunity to immerse yourself in all aspects of deal execution in the early phase of your career. The ample deal flow at Kartesia also ensures exposure and steep learning curves."

What it takes to join us:

- Master's degree in business or finance with outstanding academic results
- Strong written and verbal communication skills in Dutch & English, other languages are considered a plus
- Proven interest in Private Equity, M&A and financing (structured/leveraged) and/or corporate strategy
- Strong analytical skills
- Strong work ethic, team player with can-do attitude, rapid learner and ability to work autonomously

What we offer

- Compensation package in line with industry standards
- Structured mentorship program
- Challenging environment that allows for and stimulates individual initiatives
