

WE'RE HIRING!

(JUNIOR) M&A CONSULTANT

Job description

You already have a few years' experience as an M&A professional or you just finished your master's degree and you have the ambition to become an independent dealmaker. This entrepreneurial drive is part of Marktlink's DNA. At Marktlink, you will not be just a link in the chain, but doing business independently from day 1. You will be responsible for a significant part of the transaction process and involved from A to Z. You have sufficient financial skills, but also a commercial mindset and a genuine interest in entrepreneurs; the clients of Marktlink.

At Marktlink, no day is the same. As an (Junior) M&A Consultant you can broadly expect the following:

- Performing company and market analyses;
- Preparing valuations and bid books;
- Meeting potential buyers and sellers;
- Approaching new buyers and sellers;
- Expanding and maintaining the (Marktlink) network;
- Preparing financing applications and solving financing issues;
- Providing broad support to the manager during the projects.

Job requirements

You are sharp, accurate, result-oriented, think on your feet and like to get things done. Furthermore, we expect you to deliver the following experience and competencies:

- Master's degree in Finance or a higher professional education degree combined with a finance-oriented Masters;
- You are a social and entrepreneurial person who has practical and strategic insight as well as tactical and commercial insight;
- In addition to being analytically strong, a Marktlinker is punctual and target-driven;
- Demonstrable affinity with SME-companies is an advantage;
- An eye for personal relationships and excellent communication skills are a must;
- A good command of the Dutch and English languages.

Could you be our new Marktlink colleague? We are eager to learn what you can contribute to our organisation. In addition to the 'must-haves', we are looking for personality. Who are you? What makes you stand out? Send in your application today by submitting your CV, a short covering letter and a video (optional) by using the application button on our website: careers.marktlink.com.

About Marktlink

Marktlink M&A is the mergers and acquisitions specialist for entrepreneurs in the SME sector in Western-Europe. As a specialist in mergers and acquisitions in the SME sector, we are the link with the market. Everyone is extremely eager to learn and is genuinely interested in the world of the entrepreneur. Employees are involved in the entire process from day one and have an impact on the result. In addition to a solid financial and analytical background, resourcefulness and determination, strong communication skills and a genuine willingness to listen are an important part of the skill-set of our employees.