

Venture Capital and Private Equity (Growth) internship at Fortino Capital Partners

About Fortino Capital Partners

Fortino Capital Partners is a venture capital and private equity firm with a core focus on technology, digital and especially B2B SaaS companies. We currently have more than €320m funds under management and participate in 16 promising scale-ups and growth companies like Teamleader, MobileXpense, BuyBay, LetsBuild, Dobco Medical Systems and Efficcy. The investment team currently consists of 10 people, with a very diverse background varying from Executive Management, Private Equity, Investment Banking and Consulting. We have two offices, one in Berchem (HQ and main location for interns) and one in Amsterdam, both next to the railway station.

Job description

We are looking for ambitious and highly motivated people willing to move the needle. You will be staffed on a wide variety of tasks, covering amongst other:

- Screening of investment opportunities
- Financial analysis and modelling
- Support on deal execution
- Drafting materials presented to the Investment Committee
- Active support in portfolio management

Given our flat organization structure, you will be able to work with all members of our investment team. We have a very dynamic and result-oriented culture but also offer flexibility to operate. We value sense of ownership and empower people as much as possible to ensure a steep learning curve for you, though always with the necessary support from more senior team members.

We have flexibility in terms of duration, but we are looking for someone who is available for at least three consecutive months. The starting date is flexible as we employ interns throughout the whole year. The internship will be remunerated.

Qualifications

- Final year Master student or MBA student
- Relevant past internships are a plus
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills
- Analytical mindset
- Sound Excel and PowerPoint skills
- Thorough understanding of financial metrics and modelling
- Fluent in English and fluent in either Dutch or French

To apply, please send your CV and cover letter to info@fortinocapital.com
