

ALLYUM

M&A internship

(4-6 months)

YOUR ROLE

As an Intern, you will work as part of a dynamic team of experienced professionals supporting Mid-Cap M&A transactions. Your role will encompass the following responsibilities:

- ✓ Assist in the origination process by preparing pitch books as well as company and industry analysis.
- ✓ Assist in deal execution by drafting of transaction documents, screenings of potential buyers and/or acquisition targets as well as the due diligence process.
- ✓ Assist with valuation, including modelling (DCF) and researching multiples of comparable companies and relevant transactions.
- ✓ Support the Business Development team in the creation of new leads and prospects.

YOUR PROFILE

You obtained or you are close to obtaining a university degree in Finance, Economics or Business management and displayed strong academic results. You are passionate about a career in M&A, Investment Banking, Private Equity or another Finance-related industry. You already developed competences in financial modelling, company valuation and financial statement analysis.

You possess strong analytical, quantitative and problem-solving skills. You have a solid work ethic and are able to work independently. You gathered significant Excel and Powerpoint presentation skills. You are fluent in English and French, Dutch is a strong asset.

OUR OFFER

- ✓ A challenging job in a dynamic, inspiring and pleasant work environment.
- ✓ An opportunity to participate as team member among experienced professionals in the origination and execution of M&A transactions.
- ✓ A training programme existing of several workshops covering relevant topics of the investment profession.
- ✓ An opportunity to develop crucial experience and skills needed to become a successful M&A professional.
- ✓ A competitive salary in accordance with your education, experience and skills.
- ✓ Opportunity to receive a full time position offer following the internship

ALLYUM

Allyum is a corporate finance company based in Brussels, Belgium and specialized in M&A and funding operations for Mid Cap markets. Our client base includes young innovative companies as well as blue chips (Veolia, P&V, Multipharma, Eckert & Ziegler, Groupe Mestdagh...)

Regarding Allyum's Corporate Finance services, we work on value creation by acting as both an M&A leader and advisor:

- Dealmakers: M&A Transactions, Private placements, IPO, Corporate Venturing, ...
- Advisory: Valuations, Shareholder Restructuring, Financial Analysis and planning, ...

More than 100 companies have entrusted Allyum to conduct their financial transactions in Belgium and abroad over the last ten years.