

Investment Team internship opportunity

Unique opportunity to join a fast-growing private debt- and equity Investor

Kartesia is a leading European provider of tailored credit and capital solutions to middle-market companies. We have a total of €3.6b assets under management and target opportunities in which we can invest between €15m and €140m. As a long-term and relationship-driven investor, Kartesia aims to offer its investors superior risk-adjusted returns combined with solid downside protection.

Job Description

Kartesia is looking for a top-performing master student or recent graduate for a minimum 3-month internship in its Brussels office.

He/she will be part of the dynamic Benelux deal team and will be involved in all stages of the investment process, from opportunity screening up to presenting investment opportunities in the investment committee and portfolio-company follow-up.

The internship position provides for a unique opportunity to work with a highly experienced investment team based in Brussels on complex transactions in a fast-paced environment, allowing to get exposure to the European LBO and private equity landscape. In addition, the intern will have the ability to develop investment and financial analysis skills and improve soft skills and networking abilities through internal and external meetings.

Requirements:

- Master's degree in economics, business or finance with outstanding academic results
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills in Dutch & English, other languages are considered a plus
- Prior (internship) experience in Private Equity, M&A, transaction services or financing (structured/leveraged)
- Strong analytical skills
- Strong work ethic, team player with can-do attitude, rapid learner and ability to work autonomously

What we offer:

- Opportunity to be a true member of our Benelux deal team, with significant responsibilities from day one
- Vibrant and challenging environment that allows for and stimulates individual initiatives
- Structured mentorship program
- Compensation package in line with industry standards

In the light of the continued strong growth of Kartesia, successful interns may get the opportunity to move into an analyst position should there be any openings.
