

Level Next consists of a team of passionate M&A advisors with a clear focus: realizing a successful transaction for each client - entrepreneur, investor, company, family office or private equity fund.

To support its growth, Level Next is looking for an analyst and an associate who:

- ✕ has a profound interest in company transactions
- ✕ has a unique edge
- ✕ has relevant expertise in M&A - minimum 2 years for an analyst and 4 years for an associate
- ✕ wants to contribute to the strong reputation of Level Next
- ✕ has one or more university degrees
- ✕ adept in Dutch, English and/or French
- ✕ is proficient with Excel, Word and PowerPoint

On each assignment we work as a team. The strength of each member is applied in order to maximize the outcome. You will be in the lead of several aspects

- ✕ consultations with clients
- ✕ challenging and verifying operational and financial data
- ✕ developing models and normalized financial statements
- ✕ establishing consistent and crystallized information memorandums
- ✕ performing market research
- ✕ contacting potential buyers or sellers
- ✕ negotiating transaction prices and conditions
- ✕ coordinating due diligence processes
- ✕ elaborating terms sheets, sale purchase agreements or other agreements
- ✕ mastering the psychology and strategy of deal making

Level Next offers you

- ✕ a varied function, being involved with all aspects of M&A transactions and working on several assignments in a wide range of sectors
- ✕ client contact and client satisfaction
- ✕ growth opportunities based on your skills and performance
- ✕ a balanced remuneration package as an employee or on a self-employed basis
- ✕ mutual flexibility
- ✕ a stimulating and above-board culture
